'Sumud', is the Palestinian concept of steadfastness, resilience, persistence and non-violence.

We will: share our experiences of responding to the Gospel call to work for justice and peace in times of brokenness, violence and conflict; and have time for quiet reflection and prayer.

Listen to Ann Farr who has vast experience of what it is to be a Peacemaker both as an Ecumenical Accompanier in the Holy Land and by her many years of work leading Pax Christi.

Light refreshments provided, please bring your own lunch.

Catholic Charity (Stella Maris) previously called Apostleship of the Sea is one of the few maritime charities with chaplains based in Ukraine. They carry out ship visits from the southern port city of Odesa. Here they work with seafarers on the frontline, witnessing the impact it is having on them. On Sea Sunday, which falls on 14th July this year, let us pray for seafarers, fishers, and the work of Stella Maris. Let us remember especially those seafarers who are sailing through conflict zones and those who have been abandoned in distant lands.

A new podcast for Catholic audiences has launched this week. The All Kinds of Catholic podcast has been created by Theresa Alessandro who hosts the weekly episodes. A new conversation with a different Catholic guest will be released on Wednesdays. The dialogue focusses on how each person is living their faith in the world today – with all the hopes, joys and disappointments that any of us might experience.
